

Kenaston's 2010 Centennial Party

Kenaston will be 100 years old in 2010. Come celebrate with us!
Friday, July 2, 2010 to Sunday July 4, 2010

Information is available on the Kenaston website at www.kenaston.ca and you can email us at Kenaston2010@hotmail.com.

The countdown is on for the "Kenaston 2010" celebration. Our Centennial party is six months away. The 2010 Planning Committee wants to be sure our community presents a very beautiful, well manicured picture to all our visitors. We would like to invite everyone to plan now for "your" part in cleaning up yards, manicuring overgrown sidewalks, painting fences, getting weeds under control, trimming trees and remove dead ones and in general making improvements happen. What about making a special effort to clean up the public property between your lot and the street?

We all need to plan now and work with the Village and Rural Municipalities, Kenaston Community Recreation Board, Kenaston Housing Authority, our churches, our school and local businesses to succeed. Some of these things are clearly "not our responsibility"; but if we all work together, wonderful things can happen in big ways! Early June of 2010 will be the biggest push to have grass cut, hedges trimmed and vacant lots cleaned up to be ready for July 2, 3 and 4.

To book camping sites, please contact the Village office (306-252-2211). If you can provide camping spaces on your property, kindly let the Village office know. It would be nice to offer a water hose and power.

What about registering for meals? Advance tickets must be purchased for the pancake breakfast, gala supper and cold plate luncheon. We will NOT have tickets available at the door as these are catered functions. There will be a cut-off point for meal ticket sales so you will want to purchase your tickets as early as possible to ensure that you can attend the events that you want. Registration forms will be available at most businesses around town. Forms may also be downloaded from the Kenaston website (www.kenaston.ca). Registration forms will be available at all of our local businesses. Cheques should be made payable to "Kenaston 2010". Registration fees/forms should be mailed to Kenaston 2010, PO Box 85 Kenaston SK S0G 2N0. Your tickets will be available for pick up on Friday evening (July 2) and Saturday morning (July 3).

The 2010 recipe books are on sale for $10.00 and are available at Heather's Corner; CJ's Super Stop and Theresa Owen.
